

Great Neck South High Library's

South High Library will celebrate National Library Week this year from April 8th – 15th. The library will kick off the week's festivities with our second annual Battle of the Books on April 8th. The basic premise is to have teams of students answer trivia questions based on books they read specifically for the contest.

ENTRY INFORMATION

- Teams will consist of a maximum of five students grouped by CLASS (seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen) and one teacher (not necessarily affiliated with any class).
- Teams must attend a meeting after school in the library on Wednesday, March 2, 2011 for details and to pick up the list of books to be used in the battle.
- The competition will take place Friday, April 8, 2011 at 2:45 PM in the library.
- Interested students will sign-up in the library.

HOW THE ACTUAL BATTLE WILL WORK

- Teams will be given one question from each of the books on the reading list.
- Teams will assign one member the role of team manager who is responsible for reading the answer.
- They will have 30 seconds to come to a consensus on the answer.
- Points will be assigned as follows: one point for the author's name and four points for the correct answer.
- The team with the most points at the end of 3 rounds (maybe 4 depending on time) wins!!
- Winning teams will receive prizes and win points toward Rebel Olympics!

LET'S GET READY TO READ...!!!
